

Weights from Portland, Maine

Portland, Maine (June 14, 2024 )—After main event fighter Dylan Price failed to make weight for the main event fight at the Cross Insurance Arena, The fight between Kendrick Ball and Britton Norwood has been elevated to main event of Saturday's nine-bout (six professional and three amateur) card.

Britton Norwood 186.5 – Kendrick Ball 183.8 (USBF Light Heavyweight Title)

Jimmy Williams 152.6 – Casey James Streeter 152.8

(New England Super Welterweight Title)

Destiny Jones 143 – Feifilimai Faiva 134.2

Brandon Berry 149.2 – Aeilio Mesquita 147.6

Wade Faria 154 – Lucas Miranda 153.2

Marcos Romero 166.4 – Jonathan Gary 164.8

Promoters: Banner Promotions and Portland Boxing Club

Venue: Cross Insurance Arena

1st Bell: 6:30 PM EDT w/three Amateur fights

Stream: Trillertv+

---

AUDIO: Dylan Price Reflects

on Recent Knockout and Readies for June 15th bout

---

VIDEO: Dylan Price Reflects
on Recent Knockout and
Readies for June 15th bout

---

VIDEO: Undefeated
Bantamweight Dylan Price
Talks about January 13 fight with Gilberto Mendoza

---

AUDIO: The Abrams Boxing Show: Ep 36 w/Danny Garcia

and Dylan Price

---

VIDEO: The Abrams Boxing Show: Ep 36 w/Danny Garcia and Dylan Price

---

Dylan Price wins WBO Global and WBC Continental Bantamweight Titles with Unanimous Decision over Jobert Alvarez in Chester, PA

CHESTER, PA (FEBRUARY 20, 2023)—Dylan Price remained undefeated with a 10-round unanimous decision over gritty Jobert Alvarez to win the WBO Global and WBC Intercontinental; Bantamweight title in front of a near-capacity crowd at the Elevations Event Center in Chester, Pennsylvania.

The special two-fight card was promoted by Price Promotions.

Dylan Price, who had nine-time and four division world champion Nonito Donaire in his corner, was quick and started his flurries as he mixed up his attack by landing head and body shots. Alvarez was extremely game as he would often try to land his own combinations in return. Price landed the much harder punches, and snapped the head back of Alvarez on several occasions. Price was urged on by a supportive fan base. Alvarez kept Price honest with some solid combinations, but never put any fear into Price and the undefeated Sicklerville, New Jersey fighter continued his pressure and effective punching until the final bell.

The world-ranked Price won by scores of 100-90 and 98-92 twice to raise his mark to 16-0. Alvarez of Renton, Washington via General Santos City, Philippines is 20-5-2.

The co-feature opener saw the impressive pro debut of Dylan's 18 year-old brother Devin Price.

Price stopped 16-fight veteran Matias Arriagada in the opening round of their junior welterweight fight.

Price dropped Arriagada three times with two of them coming on body shots. The fight was halted at 2:07.

Price is 1-0 with one knockout. Arriagada of Buenos Aires, Argentina is 6-11.

The fight card was called by former world champions Paulie Malignaggi and Nate Campbell along with world class blow by blow announcer Marc Abrams,.

The night also featured a full night of entertainment that featured internationally renowned singers and comedy acts was streamed on www.profetsplus.com and is available on demand.

---

AUDIO: Dylan Price Ready for Jobert Alvarez Showdown

---

VIDEO: Dylan Price Ready for Jobert Alvarez Showdown

---

AUDIO: Nonito Donaire talks about working with Dylan
Price and Breaks News on World Title Opportunity