

BOXER CAMACHO, JR. LAUNCHES MACHO CUP IN SPANISH HARLEM

April 26, 2023, Brooklyn, NY – Boxing champion Hector Camacho Jr. will host a special press conference announcing the launch of the Macho Cup Amateur Boxing Event. Named in honor of his slain father, Hector “Macho” Camacho, the legendary Puerto Rican world champion boxer and entertainer who lost his life in senseless drive-by shooting. The free event will feature a series of amateur boxing matches sanctioned by USA Boxing Metro, presented by Gym X Boxing Gym, EntroBox, American Dream Presents, and Hector Camacho Jr.

The press conference will take place at 11:00 AM, Thursday, April 27th, at the East Harlem neighborhood where Macho Camacho grew up, at the James Weldon Johnson Community Center, located at 1833 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY.

The historic event is part of Camacho Jr’s Gloves Up Guns Down, a national social justice initiative that promotes boxing as a positive, healthy alternative to senseless gun violence. “Having lost my dad to a bullet, I’m committed to continue to raise awareness, provide hope while making a difference in our communities,” said Camacho Jr.

Hector “Macho” Camacho, East Harlem legend, won three New York State Golden Gloves tournaments before becoming a world champion boxer in three weight classes, WBC Super Featherweight, WBC Lightweight, and WBO Junior Welterweight. Hector “Macho” Camacho was the prized fighter that sent Sugar Ray Leonard into permanent retirement in 1997. On November 20, 2012, world champion boxer, who fought his way out of the rough streets of Spanish Harlem’s, was killed in a drive-by shooting in Puerto Rico.

The inaugural Macho Cup will take place May 18th, kicking off a festive week of celebration honoring the fighting pride of Spanish Harlem. It will include renaming 115th Street and Lexington Avenue, Macho Camacho Way, to be held on May 20th. In addition to the historic renaming of the street, Bally's Sports will air a special 60-minute documentary – "Macho Camacho Way" – chronicling the events leading up to the renaming and the festive celebration that will follow. Produced by Ron Johnson and Hector Camacho Jr., the film will premiere in June of 2023 on Bally's linear and digital channels.

EntroBox is an entertainment and sports industry company that unleashes the value of entertainers and amateur/pro athletes. EntroBox's unique approach and professional status in the sporting industry allows them to execute across a diverse landscape. EntroBox is launching the next evolution in boxing's DNA, while providing a pathway for other sports to connect and monetize to the ever-changing digital world. EntroBox is bridging viewership from network TV to the metaverse.

Macho Camacho Way To Air This June on Bally Sports

LAS VEGAS (April 18, 2023)–This June, a "Macho Camacho Way", a 60-minute documentary chronicling the naming of a street in honor of former world champion and International Boxing Hall of Famer Hector "Macho" Camacho in Camacho's hometown in Spanish Harlem, New York City.

The documentary will air on Bally Sports.

The film is Executive Produced by Entrobox CEO Ronald Johnson, Hector Camacho Jr, Antonio Ward , Arthur Bonner , Hiru Corporation and The Ground Up LLC and James Wilent

Producers on the project are Manuel Hernandez, Jeremy Woodruff, George Harrell of Harrell Media Inc, and Terry Artis Jr .

It will focus on the days leading up to, the street naming ceremony and the celebration that took place after that celebrated the life of the charismatic Camacho. There will be exclusive interviews with those who were closest to the former world champion.

“Fighters are Born Everyday. Special Fighters like Hector “Macho” Camacho aren’t born everyday. Macho Camacho is once in a lifetime ... it’s Still Machotime!,” said Hector Camacho Jr. “This is the true meaning of the American Dream. Saw my father come from nothing to visiting the White House to meet President Reagan. From the Bottom to the Top”! I appreciate Ron Johnson putting this together with me.”

“It’s an honor and pleasure to be able to partner up with Hector Camacho Jr and create this special on his late father who was an inspiration to so many! There’s only one macho man and it will forever be Macho Time!,” said co-Executive Producer, Ron Johnson