JULIAN WILLIAMS GETS FIRST ROUND KNOCKOUT OVER LUCIANO
CUELLO ON PREMIER BOXING
CHAMPIONS ON FS1 AND FOX
DEPORTES FROM SANDS BETHLEHEM

EVENT CENTER IN BETHLEHEM, PA

Bethlehem, PA (September 22, 2015) – The main event of Premier Boxing Champions on FS1 and FOX Deportes showcased Julian Williams (21-0-1, 13 KOs) as he knocked out Luciano Cuello (35-4, 17 KOs) in the very first round of their contest. At the one minute 33-second mark of the first round Williams proved too much for Cuello.

The opening televised bout featured Mexico's Moises Flores (24-0, 17 KOs) in an action-packed brawl against Argentina's Luis Cusolito (21-2, 19 KOs). During a battle that allowed both fighters to appear in control at times, Flores managed to withstand 11 rounds of damage and sealed the deal with a 12th round knockout over Cusolito.

Caleb Plant (10-0, 8 KOs) went the distance in the second televised bout and secured a unanimous decision (80-71, 79-72, 80-71) victory over Jamar Freeman (13-5-2, 7 KOs).

Here is what the televised fighters had to say about their performances:

JULIAN WILLIAMS

"I may be the fastest super welterweight in the world, and I'm accurate enough to hit guys when I want to.

"I knew I was getting to him early and I just stayed vicious. It was a straight right that I landed on him to end things. I saw his left eye bubble up immediately.

"I've fought undefeated prospects and former champions. I'll fight anybody. I don't hate (Austin) Trout at all. He's just higher ranked than me and one of the guys in my way."

LUCIANO CUELLO

"It was a right to the head that ended things. I felt my eye closing up. I felt like I might have been able to continue, but my balance was a little thrown off after he landed the right to my left eye.

"I disagreed with the stoppage when I was in the moment, but I'll go back and watch the fight to take another look at it.

"I've fought some great fighters in my career, and Williams is as strong as any of them.

MOISES FLORES

"I won this fight because of how I prepared. This was all about my preparation and dedication in the gym. I left my home in Mexico and went to Miami for 10 weeks to train for this fight. We didn't do exactly what we planned, but my conditioning helped me get through this battle tonight.

"I'm very happy to get this interim title, but I want a shot at Leo Santa Cruz next. I'll go up to 126 pounds to make that happen if he wants.

"This was a huge jump for me being on a PBC card and fighting on FS1 and FOX Deportes. Great fighters get this honor and it feels wonderful to be a part of a card like this."

EMANUEL CUSOLITO

"I hurt my hand in the second round.

"He is a very strong champion. I was fighting hard but the ref thought I had taken too many punches. I could have continued. He is a great champion though. I want to come back and show my skills and heart to my fans from Argentina.

"I thought in several rounds, I was going to knock him out, but maybe I was over confident. He has a great chin."

CALEB PLANT

"I was relaxed and composed in there tonight. I had him hurt so I pressed him more, but he's a tough fighter.

"I dropped him in the third with a left hook, and so I used that as a opportunity to pursue him more, but he hung tough.

"This is a blessing to be a part of what Al (Haymon) is doing for boxing. Brining it back to free TV is huge. To be involved in something like this so early in my career helps me get great exposure."

JAMAR FREEMAN

"I couldn't find my rhythm. I got to him a few times but I didn't let my hands go.

"I am a natural 154 pound fighter, so he was able to walk me down and walk right through my punches. His power did not get to me at all though.

"Caleb is a good fighter. He can go a long way as long as he stays focused. He has real good timing."

Julian Williams Looks To Take Down Luciano Cuello On His Way To Bigger Fights

Bethlehem, PA (September 22, 2015) – Tonight junior middleweight rising star Julian "J Rock" Williams (20-0-1, 12 KO's) will risk his undefeated record when he takes on rugged Argentinian Luciano Cuello (35-3, 17 KO's) in a scheduled 10-round bout that will headline Premier Boxing Champions (PBC) TOE-T0-T0E TUESDAYS fight card that will be televised by FS1 and FOX Deportes at 9 p.m. ET/6 p.m. PT.

Tickets for the live event, which is promoted by King's Promotions, are priced at $100, $75 and $45, not including applicable service charges and taxes and are on sale now. Tickets are available at www.ticketmaster.com. To charge by phone call Ticketmaster at (800) 745-3000.

Williams, of Philadelphia, has established himself as one of the top contenders in the junior middleweights division, but he first must get by the tough, experienced Cuello, who has only lost to top contender Willie Nelson as well as former world champions Julio Cesar Chavez Jr. and Saul Alvarez.

With a win, Williams would not only put himself in select company of conquerors of Cuello but he would be elevated into major fights in the latter part of 2015 or early 2016.

“Training camp went great,” said Williams. “I had a long 9 week camp. I am in great condition as usual and ready to get in there.

“Cuello is a tough guy. He is a real fighter that will come to other guy’s countries and hometowns and put up tough fights.”

Besides his great talent, Williams has been lauded for the way he conducts himself both in and out of the ring. Despite fighting close to home and on national television, 25 year-old Williams won’t be fazed.

“I really don’t think about being close to home or even that the fight is on television. It is an honor, but I am not going to let fighting close to home distract me.”

For the past several months, Williams and former junior middleweight world champion Austin Trout have engaged in a feud on social media and with a win on Tuesday night, they could be headed for a showdown in their next bouts.

“I will address the stuff with Trout after I win on September 22nd. I am close to getting a big opportunity and a shot at the title. I am ready now.”

“I just want the fans to tune into FS1 or come out to the Sands and enjoy the ‘J- Rock’ experience.”
