MARQUES VALLE LOOKS TO CONTINUE DOMINANCE AT 154 ON FEBRUARY 22 ON PROBOX TV

Tampa's highly talked about Marques Valle is looking to set the ground running in 2023, as he looks to establish himself as a contender in the super welterweight division.

Valle has been dominant in his 7 professional outings, with all of the wins coming within the scheduled distance. Now the all-action puncher turns his attention to making an impact in the super welterweight division.

Valle opened up on his plans in 2023, "I'm working hard as always in the gym to improve technically and grow into the weight. I started my pro career at 147 but I think I'm going to continue to grow, so it's the right thing for me to fight at 54.

"I've had a great start to my career on ProBox TV, the whole team from Garry Jonas to coaches Marc Farrait and Asa Beard along with my management team at Split-T have worked really well to bring me on the right way, I feel like I have a dream team and that's really all a fighter can ask for."

'The Machine' competes as a professional alongside his younger brother Dominic Valle, who also holds an undefeated record, and the bigger brother discussed his relationship with his brother and hopes for 2023 for the pair.

He said, "I'm really happy with how me and my brother have progressed, and I love how we always get featured on ProBox TV. Dominic has been guided properly and I think we're going to be ready for a regional title in 2023.

"There's a lot of great fighters on television, fighters like Erickson Lubin who are in fights that we are aiming to be in one day, but for now I think we will want to push ourselves into a position where we are ready to break into the world top 15 and go from there.

"I'm from a Puerto Rican family, I grew up watching Felix Trinidad and Miguel Cotto, it was a family party every time there was a big Puerto Rican fight on, and boxing is a family business with me. Hopefully one day we can have these types of parties when my brother and I fight."

Split-T Management Fighters Get Three Wins on Friday

NEW YORK (September 13, 2022)– Three Split-T Management fighters got victories on Friday night.

In an entertaining scrap that produced a lot of contact, Joseph Adorno won a 10-round unanimous decision over Hugo Alberto Roldan to win the IBF Latino Junior Welterweight title at Ballys Atlantic City.

In round two, Adorno landed two counter lefts to the side of the head, for which Roldan’s glove touched the canvas.

Roldan continued to press the action throughout the fight, but Adorno was on point with check hooks and body shots. Both guys had swelling under their eyes.

Adorno landed 105 of 339 punches; Roldan was 93 of 419.

Adorno, 139.5 lbs of Bethlehem, PA won by scores of 95-94 scores and is now 17-1-2. Roldan, 140 lbs of Argentina is 21-1-1.

"I feel like all the hard work I put in since I was a little kid is finally starting to pay off and coming all together," said Adorno, who took the fight with Roldan on four weeks' notice after Shinard Bunch withdrew from the main event. "I did lose a little love for boxing for a while. But I'm proud. He was an awkward fighter. I took the fight on short notice. He's a higher weight class than me. I'm a 135-pounder. All the hard work pays off. I went through a lot in the ring tonight, as any fighter does. I hurt my hand. I got hit with a headbutt that almost closed my eye. But I overcame it all. I got what it takes. I can hang in there with the top guys. Give me a couple more fights and I'll be ready for anybody."

"You learn a lot from a fight like this," Adorno said. "In boxing, you're going to face guys with different styles. Not everybody is going to be the same. Weird guys like Roldan make you look ugly. But you have to get through it, listen to your corner and adjust. That's what we did tonight. He came out with that aggressive style because he knew he had to throw a lot of punches to win the fight. I understand that. He's not a power-puncher so he had to throw punches to have a chance. I'm just glad we got the victory."

Adorno is promoted by GH3 Promotions.
