“Time to bring #TheTakeover to the big city,” said Lopez.

Lopez, is managed by Split-T Management and promoted by Top Rank.

Split-T Management Signs Undefeated Power Puncher Anthony Barnes

New York, NY (July 9, 2018)-Split-T Management has signed undefeated super middleweight Anthony Barnes.

Barnes of West Bloomfield, Michigan has a record of 10-0 with 8 knockouts.

The 27 year-old Barnes began boxing at the age of 15, and racked up an amateur record of 62-10 with 25 knockouts.

Barnes was a five-time Michigan Golden Gloves Champion.

He turned professional on October 12, 2012 with a 3rd round stoppage over Steve Wofford. Barnes has continued to win, and is coming off a 1st round stoppage over veteran Lenwood Dozier on April 13th in Detroit.

Barnes, who is trained by Javan "Sugar" Hill, has juggled his career with being a Process Server.

"I signed with David McWater because he was a straight shooter," said Barnes. "What you see is what you get. I asked people I know he manages and people who know him. Everyone says good things to about him, which confirmed by what I thought."

Said Split-T Management CEO, David McWater, "Anthony has movie star looks, and one punch power that can knock any super middleweight out. We share similar thought and a plan on how he can become champion and in 3 years. I see him not only as a champion, but one of the big attractions in boxing"

Barnes will be back in action this Friday night, July 13th, when he takes on Dwayne Williams in a six-round bout on a show that is promoted by Carlos Llinas CLIP Promotions at The MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit.

Split-T Management Fighter

Michael Moore to appear on this season of The Contender

New York, NY (June 29, 2018)-Middleweight Michael Moore will appear on the upcoming season of the Contender.

The highly anticipated 12-episode season, from MGM Television and Paramount Television, will premiere on EPIX® on Aug. 24, 2018 at 10 PM ET/PT.

Moore of Cleveland, Ohio has a record of 15-1 with 7 knockouts.

The 31 year-old Moore, who is riding a two-fight winning streak will be able to gain worldwide exposure by competing on the popular television program.

Moore is reformed from a hard life on the street. With drugs, death and family suicide prevalent around him, Michael Moore is a natural hustler and leader. Married with two kids, Moore is constantly moving from state to state with his family in tow in pursuit of the boxing dream.

“I feel blessed to be part of The Contender series because I know there were a lot of other fighters out there that are good like me and have stories of hardship like me,” said Moore.

“At the time I was approached by Split-T Management, I was going through a rough patch in life as money was really tight, bills were piling, and I had recently pulled out of the biggest fight of my life which was going to be nationally televised due to an injury a week before the bout. I felt lost because I didn’t know what I was going to do. When I was a kid, I would hustle to make some money but as a man with a wife and two kids, I can’t get involved in those kind of stuff but I have to make something happen to keep a roof over their heads and food on their plates.”

“This opportunity couldn’t come at a better time and I plan to take full advantage of changing the lives of my family.”

“I want to thank Split-T Management and people of The Contender for giving me this opportunity to change my life and when you see me, you will see a father, a husband, a man, a fighter who works his darnest because there is a lot on the line when it comes to Michael Moore.”

“When we were approached on who we thought would be great for the Contender Series, Michael first came to my mind because he is a good fighter who has such a great story behind him,” said Moore’s manager David McWater, CEO of Split-T Management. “Once you get to hear his words, and hear his story you will instantly be a fan.”

ARDREAL HOLMES DESTROYS DOMINIQUE FOSTER IN 2 ROUNDS

New York, NY (June 24, 2018)-Junior Middleweight Ardreal Holmes (6-0, 4 KOs) of Flint, Michigan remained undefeated as he stopped Dominique Foster after the 2nd round of their scheduled four-round bout at The International Banquet and Conference Center in Detroit.

Holmes landed hard straight shots from the southpaw stance on Foster, who had to retire on the stool after the 2nd round with a possible broken nose.

"I am very happy to get back in the ring and get some of the rust off," said the victorious Holmes. "Hopefully my promoters can put me right back because I want to make up for lost time. It's only a matter of time when everyone in boxing will know the name, Ardreal "Bossman" Holmes! " Holmes is managed by Split-T Management, and CEO David McWater was very happy to have 6'2" junior middleweight prospect back in the ring.

"Ardreal did what I expected him to do, which was impress the fans with an impressive stoppage. He has the frame, skills and power to win titles in 4 weight divisions and I expect him to do just that."

SPLIT-T MANAGEMENT JUNIOR MIDDLEWEIGHT ARDREAL HOLMES IN ACTION TONIGHT IN DETROIT

New York, NY (June 23, 2018)-Undefeated junior middleweight Ardreal Holmes (5-0, 3 KOs) of Flint, Michigan will be back in action tonight, when he takes on Dominique Foster in a scheduled four-round bout at The International Banquet and Conference Center in Detroit.

At Friday's weigh-in Holmes weighed in at 155.4 lbs. Foster checked in at the same weight as Holmes.

"I am so excited to get back in the ring because I want to show everyone why I am looked at as one of the best prospects in the country," said Holmes.

"The fans who attend will get to see one of the best fighters to come out of Michigan in a long time."

Holmes, who was the number-one ranked welterweight in the U.S., had an outstanding amateur career that culminated in reaching the finals of the Olympic trials.

Holmes competed in over 80 amateur fights, and won several major tournaments including the 2015 USA National Elite Championship.

Holmes is managed by Split-T Management, and CEO David McWater said, "Going into the 2016 US Olympic Trials, I thought Ardreal was the favorite in the welterweight division, and would go on to represent the United States. He is so physically gifted and naturally talented, I can't see anything stopping him from being a world champion."

RAQUEL “THE PRETTY BEAST” MILLER REMAINS PERFECT WIN UNANIMOUS DECISION OVER SZILVIA SZABADOS IN QUEENS, NEW YORK

New York, NY (June 22, 2018)-Raquel Miller kept her perfect record intact with a six-round unanimous decision over Szilvia Szabados in a middleweight bout at the Melrose Ballroom in Queens, New York.

Miller stunned and hurt Szabados throughout the contest. Miller, who was making her New York City debut showed her versatility by featuring a diverse arsenal of punches with both hands.

Miller handled the former world-title challenger with ease as she won by shutout scores of 60-54 on all cards.

Miller wore a ring outfit that paid homage to the movie Black Panther.

The 2012 United States Olympic Alternate, Miller continued her dominance as a professional as her record soared to 6-0.

“I enjoyed myself in there last night and it felt good to be back in action,” said Miller. “I felt strong, and I felt like that I had a solid performance. My opponent was tough and I was happy to get the rounds in. Fighting under the DiBella Entertainment banner is very special, and I appreciated being warmly embraced by Lou DiBella himself!”

“I decided to come out as the leader of the Wakanda tribe in the movie Black Panther, Dora Milaje. I was accented in gold because I felt they represent the new age women warriors like myself. We are fierce, strong and not afraid to go to war. I love to trailblaze, and set the bar high. I’m sure we can expect to see other women coming out and joining the Wakanda tribe and I’m happy to be the leader of that movement. ”

Said Split-T Management CEO, David McWater, “After being off for 8 months, I was more than happy with her performance. Going in, I wanted to see how she performed with Szilvia Szabados as compared to how Clarrissa Shields performed and Raquel definitely looked better.”

MILLER IN ACTION TONIGHT NIGHT IN QUEENS, NEW YORK

New York, NY (June 21, 2018)-TONIGHT, undefeated middleweight Raquel "The Pretty Beast" Miller will be back in action when she takes on Szilvia Szabados at The Melrose Ballroom in Queens, New York.

Miller (5-0, 3 K0's) of San Francisco, weighed in at a 159.8 lbs while Szabados tipped the scales at 154.8 lbs.

Miller is managed by Split-T Management.

"I'm excited to make my New York City debut," said Miller. "I'm thankful for David McWater and DiBella Entertainment for giving me the opportunity for bringing me 1 step closer to the title. It's great to be with a promoter like Lou DiBella who has a strong commitment to women's boxing ."

Miller was an U.S. Olympic Alternate as she lost a close split decision to Claressa Shields in the finals of the Olympic Trials.

"I'm excited to be in this journey with Raquel, the best female fighter Pound for Pound and she is ready to start collecting titles," said Split-T Management CEO, David McWater.

Miller is promoted by DiBella Entertainment.

Undefeated Toledo Fireman DeAndre Ware defeats Enrique Collazo in battle of undefeated Super Middleweights

New York, NY (June 11, 2018)-DeAndre Ware scored the biggest win of his young career as he won an eight-round majority decision over 2012 Olympian and previously undefeated Enrique Collazo in a super middleweight bout at King's Theatre in Brooklyn, New York.

After a tactical first three rounds, Ware took over the fight with relentless pressure while landing powerful shots to the head and body that forced Collazo to wilt.

Ware, who is a full-time fireman, specifically asked to fight Collazo, and he came through with flying colors as he won by the scores of 77-75 twice, and 76-76.

The bout was the 1st time that Ware navigated the 8 round distance, and he got stronger with each passing round.

"This was the biggest fight of my career," said Ware. "I am thankful for this opportunity, and I am looking forward to my career taking off after this big win. We are on our way to the top."

Said David McWater, CEO of Split-T Management, "This was a great win for all of us. DeAndre has been working hard, and was patiently waiting for his opportunity to come, and when it did, he came up with a big performance. He should be a player in the super middleweight division real soon."
