

Undefeated Welterweight Contender Giovanni Santillan Throws Out First Pitch at Padres Game

NEW YORK (JUNE 13, 2022)—Undefeated Welterweight contender Giovanni Santillan threw out the first pitch at his beloved San Diego Padres game before Saturday's game against the Colorado Rockies at Petco Park

The San Diego native, who is managed by Split-T Management and co-promoted by Top Rank and Thompson Boxing, wore number-one, threw a perfect strike that reminded fans of 1976 Cy Young Award winner Randy Jones.

"It was a great experience. Being born and raised in San Diego it was an honor to do this. The Padres have a great team, and being down on the field, and looking up in the stands, gave me the feeling of wanting to fight in a big stadium one day," said Santillan.

Santillan has a record of 29-0 with 16 knockouts. His next bout will be announced soon.
